Minutes of the previous meeting

The minutes of the previous meeting held on 3rd March 2010 were approved before being signed by the chairman.

Matters arising from the previous minutes

Other than were indicated below there were no issues raised from points discussed last year, however a report on each point is included for completeness.

Stile & bridge repair

One of the stiles and bridges on a path that borders Topcroft needed attention and had been reported to NCC. and Topcroft parish council.

New Style of Stiles

Mr Rose would welcome comment on these new stiles. Mr Rose had not received any such comments.

Parking

Mr Cunningham had met with a highways official and reported that they said it was a police matter. The official indicated that normal traffic would be quicker if parking was not allowed on the road. He suggested that residents report bad parking to the police. This was notified to parishioners in the summer newsletter.

Road Repairs

The clerk had chased up NCC re road repairs generally and action had been taken however concerned was again expressed about the state of Rowland Drive and The Street near the new school entrance. – Carry fwd to Parish Council meeting.

IN

Play area bark

The play bark had been replenished.

Minutes in the shop

Minutes had until very recently been displayed in the shop, however the temporary manger has now removed them again, together with other village notices. Miss Emery reported that she had spoken to the manager who had agreed to display them again. The clerk to write to the manager and supply further copies for display.
